

Amazon Eastern Oregon Community Fund

2025 Awardees

Athena's Gem, Inc.

A twenty year, volunteer driven rural theatre renovation will complete the stage audio and lighting for the 2025 grand reopening.

Compost Casa

Providing branded t-shirts for Compost Casa's Watershed Field Day 2025 to inspire environmental stewardship and community pride.

Families First Childcare Center

A project to bring interactive materials into the preschool classrooms to build more STEM diversity into the existing program.

Heppner Chamber of Commerce

A joint project between the Heppner Chamber and local food systems suppliers to provide fresh goods each week during summer..

Heppner Community Foundation

A creative space that will provide materials for community members to engage in the arts at no cost to them.

Heppner Jr/Sr High School

This is a project that will provide materials and supplies to allow students to extend coding skills.

Heppner Junior/Senior High School

The project aims to purchase musical instruments and supplies for the school band program.

Irrigon Junior/Senior High School

They will build a Hammerhead Crane capable of moving a load to a specified location in a circular arc.

Jean Collins

Bridging the gap and forming connections between students and our Veterans creating lasting respect throughout generations and honoring our veterans.

Jeff Blackwood

EOC3 will sponsor a youth climate change poster contest through art centers in Pendleton, La Grande, and Baker City, Oregon.

Kelly Steele

Beekeeping workshops for all ages, offering hands-on experiences, introduction to bees, their role in nature, and sustainable hive management.

L- APS, INC.

Pathways Packs: Providing essentials and empowerment to individuals in transition, fostering dignity, comfort, and a fresh start.

Lita Nelson

A joint project between the community, regional organizations, and youth to spread sustainability awareness and provide clothing for the needy.

Megan Futter

Lead a hands-on STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math) program in your school or community for 9-14 year olds.

Morrow County Health District

Convert an existing space into a non-profit children's discovery center and gathering space for parents and children.

Neighbor 2 Neighbor Pendleton

This project will support Neighbor 2 Neighbor's operations, including the overnight congregate winter shelter and day center program.

Neighborhood Forest

Plant and cultivate a (mini) food forest in your home or garden. Facilitate a meaningful and impactful experience for kids.

Oasis Vineyard Church

Build a shed to cool, preserve, weigh, sort and distribute produce to the various local food pantries.

Oregon East Symphony

Celebrating 40 years of presenting classical music concerts and education to all in Umatilla County.

Pendleton Children's Center

Creating a reading space where staff and volunteers can read to children, individually or in small groups.

Soroptimist International of the Greater Hermiston Area (SIGHA)

A program that aims to empower high school girls to pursue career goals and reach their full potential in life.

South Morrow County Senior Matters

Purchase folding tables with wheels to create a flexible meeting space for senior programs and community events.

Stanfield Community Center

A community project of creating an outside concrete area with 4 metal tables/ chairs with shade for community events.

Stanfield Public Library

We will explore STEAM through physical activity while encouraging youth to grow a love of reading through the summer.

Steve Lawn

Empowering kids and parents in a rural community to innovate, tinker, and "make the future".

Students without Limits

A collaboration between community partners within the Heppner Schools, providing students with much needed resources.

Umatilla County Search and Rescue Foundation

PPE for the protection of Umatilla County Search and Rescue Volunteers during support of wildland fire evacuation notifications.

Willow Creek Park District

A community project to improve the well-being and experience of ages and abilities who visit the Willow Creek Water Park.